Lesson of the day

Dear Teacher Hotline,

I have a lot of content that students need to learn, and they often don't have enough time to finish the day's lesson. Do you have any tips on how to help them out?

Sincerely,

Flummoxed Frankie,
Vocational Teacher

Dear Flummoxed,

Have you explored using a lesson of the day with your students? This document can help them navigate the day's learning activities & organization. Come join us at the Voc Talk café on February 5th at 3:00 pm to explore an example that is currently in use in a vocational training program.

Sincerely,
The Teacher Hotline

Every first Monday of the month, the Voc Talk Café changes its formula to focus on exploring a teaching tool, in the context of any sector of vocational training. After a short introduction, participants are invited to modify a copy of the tool for use in their trade with the help of the consultants in attendance.
